Rules and regulations for Entries

Organization

The International Short Tour Film Festival of Amorgos, an annual event held during the works of the YPERIA International Convention, is directed by the Women's Cultural Association of Tholaria - Amorgos.

This year, as a part of the 15th International Convention on Culture and Tourism, "YPERIA 2017", it will take place at Aegialis Hotel & Spa from October 25th to October 30th, 2017.

Objectives

The Festival aims:

- To promote Greece, particularly Amorgos Island and the Cyclades island complex, as a tourist destination.
- To popularize and encourage the implementation of green practices in tourism, driven by the need for social responsibility and sustainable development.
- To encourage short film production and foster a spirit of friendship and cooperation among producers from around the world.

Rules & Regulations for Entries

Films taking part in the event should meet the following requirements:

- Film production has to be completed after January 1st, 2011 (inclusive).
- The total duration of the film cannot exceed twenty five (25') minutes.
- The films should be in their original language with English Subtitles, if the original language is not English.
- Due to limited facilities, films are to be submitted at the Festival Venue only in DVD
- Applicants should fill in all the required fields of the entry form and sign it.
- If the entry form is submitted by e-mail, please also submit a signed copy of the online form receipt by post.

The digital copies of the films submitted along with the entry form will be retained in the Festival's archive.

Copyright and Broadcast Rights

Entrants are responsible in any manner whatsoever for any content included within the submitted film and for their usage of restricted or copyrighted material.

The Festival has the right to reject any material that does not align with the character and objectives of its program.

All submitted film copies, entry forms and promotional material become the property of the Festival and are kept in the Festival's archive.

The International Short Tour Film Festival of Amorgos reserves the right to screen all or some of the films submitted, during the Festival or outside the Festival venue and use them for the Festival's catalogue, website or the Press whenever it is needed for promotional purposes.

Jury

The 3 films to be awarded are selected by the Jury on the basis of quality and originality. The Jury will consist of 5 members from different countries.

Each jury member rates the movies on a scale of 1 to 5 in the following three categories:

- Subject & Script
- Photography
- Soundtrack

Certificates of participation

Each entry receives a Certificate of Participation issued by the Organizing Committee of the Festival.

Exclusive rights of the Organizing Committee

- The Artistic Director of the Festival reserves the right to determine the Festival's program and make changes if necessary.
- The Organizing Committee decides and is responsible for the film screening schedule (day and hour) during the Festival.

Acceptance of regulations

- The use of any recording device in the Festival venue without the prior consent of the Organizing Committee is strictly forbidden.
- Parts of the event will be recorded. The Organizing Committee is not liable for any claims resulting from members of the audience or artists appearing in the recordings.

Submission of the entry form to the International Short Tour Film Festival implies unconditional acceptance of the present regulations.
